Rustic land for sale in Almádena

Rustic land for sale in Almádena, with no construction feasibility but with enough potential. Fig and almond trees are the predominant trees in 1 hectare of quiet and clean air at a very inviting price. The land has no water or light.

Land with water underground, but due to its location is in protected area due to severe drought is prohibited the realization of "legal" hole until change of the measure in force. Installation of water from the public network prohibited for the same reasons since it is a rustic land.
